

“I’m not in favor of gay marriage...”

Barack Obama

Hardball with Chris Matthews, MSNBC 4-2-08

When asked to specifically define his views on marriage, Obama has stated that he believes “that marriage is the union between a man and a woman.” “Now, for me as a Christian, it’s also a sacred union. God’s in the mix,” he added.

We need to uphold the sacred institution of marriage as between a man and a woman by voting YES on Prop. 8.

“Marriage is something that is sacred and worth defending as an institution of one man and one woman. Our community needs to reaffirm its commitment to marriage as an institution worth protecting – we need to support Proposition 8.”

— Pastor Tony Dockery,
St. Stephen Baptist Church

“There is a difference between civil unions and the institution of marriage that has always been reserved for a man, the father and a woman, the mother. Prop 8 does not affect anyone in California who wants to join in a domestic partnership or civil unions, it simply affirms what marriage has always been.”

— Pastor Ed Smith-Zoe
Christian Fellowship-Whittier

“We strongly reject and find it insulting that radical gay activists try to equate the civil rights movement to people of the same sex demanding that the definition of marriage be forever changed. A person's skin color is completely different than someone's sexual practices, same sex marriages are in no way comparable to the black experience for civil rights.”

— Bishop Donald E. Green
San Francisco Christian Center

“Proposition 8 is vital for anyone who cares about upholding and promoting the sacred institution of marriage. A yes vote will block mandatory indoctrination of school children about same-sex marriages. We do not need schools undercutting the values of parents on the subject of gay marriage.”

Calvary Christian Center

Senator Joe Biden affirms his and Barack Obama's support for traditional marriage

“Barack Obama nor I support redefining from a civil side what constitutes marriage. We do not support that.”

— Sen. Joe Biden
VP Debates- 10-02-08

Dennis Kucinich and Mike Gravel are the only Democratic presidential candidates that support gay marriage. Obama does not support gay marriage.
