Dear friend of TFC,

I'd like to send you TFC's newsletter of the last quarter. I'm still waiting for HYPERLINK "http://protectmarriage.com/" \nProtectMarriage.com for instructions of when we would start the signature collection for California's Marriage Amendment Initiative. They are still in the process of fundraising.

You might have known that TFC called for a boycott of An Lee's movie: Lust, Caution. We think this movie will do a lot of damage to people's moral values, degrade woman, and hurt the dignity of Chinese Americans. It falls into the category of porn and It becomes a conversation topic even in Chinese churches. We recommend that church leaders would take a stand on decency. In our last press conference, representatives from Concerned Women of America and Values Advocacy Council joined us in voicing our concern to this movie. Although we are the only groups in the world to call for a boycott of this movie, we created a wave of impact in Hong Kong and China. See: <http://whatishotinchinatoday.blogspot.com/2007/10/chinese-christian-organization-calls.html>

In the world wide web, I face many attacks for voicing out. <http://hk.search.yahoo.com/search?ei=UTF-8&fr=ush-news&p=%E3%80%8A%E8%89%B2%EF%BC%8C%E6%88%92%E3%80%8B%E6%9D%AF%E8%91%9B&meta=rst=hk>

In my personal contact and thru the radio, however, I received many encouragements and supports for our action. To our disappointment, we received notices from Chinese Churches in NY and LA that they will keep silent in this matter. Apparently those in Hong Kong and Taiwan are doing the same.

Other TFC activities can be seen in our webpage: HYPERLINK

Your prayer support is much appreciated.
Serving Christ,
